DJ Dime's professional career started in 2000. Two years later, he already was one of the most booked deejays in Rhein-Main area. 2003 he had his radio premiere at legendary black music station JAM FM, where he introduced his latest mixes once a month.

In 2005 he was laying the foundation of a longtime partnership with the german rapper and singer Jonesmann(Sony BMG / Bozz Music) and the two of them play around 150 shows through whole Europe till 2008. 2006 he was as well recognized by the german rap genius Azad(Universal Music/Bozz Music) who signed him instantly for his new tour-dj. This resulted in an announcement for "Best Live DJ National" by famous JUICE magazine. From 2009 until 2010 he was also joining the german rap combination "Monstershit Soundsystem"(Azad & Kool Savas) as official tour-dj.

He gained a lot of attention in the international music scene as well, what resulted in US-Superstar Chris Brown asking him for producing a remix for his new single"Yo(excuse me miss), which had even been placed on his official DVD " Chris Brown's Journey".

In 2011 he made a cooperation with the munich fashion label BEASTIN. He founded the BSTN-Soundsystem and played numerous business events for brands like NIKE, ADIDAS, REEBOK, BMW, PORSCHE or even the great FC BAYERN MUNICH soccer team.
